EASEMENT

One of the best-preserved structures of the Mt. Savage commercial district is the First National Bank of Mount Savage. Built in 1902 in the Colonial Revival style, it is a rectangular one-story brick building with a pilastered street facade embellished with brick arches and a classical cornice. The virtually untouched interior is one of the most perfectly preserved bank interiors in Western Maryland. Paneled wainscot lines the walls, and the original beveled glass curtain walls, iron tellers' window grates, tray ceiling, and elaborate customer wall desks all survive in pristine condition. The vault is constructed of locally manufactured white glazed brick.
